

Terms of References

Written by Administrator

Thursday, 29 July 2010 08:28 - Last Updated Thursday, 29 July 2010 08:52

Terms of Reference

Activities

Terms of Reference #1 : Serve as a resource center in nursing and midwifery particularly an evidence-b

- Provide information regarding recent developments in nursing and midwifery development to WHO and
- Serve as a resource center for training of nurses and midwives in advanced specialty areas.
- Provide consultancies to organizations on behalf of WHO.

Terms of Reference #2 : Serve as a resource center for training of nurses and midwives in evidence-b

- Provide national trainings/workshops on evidence based nursing and midwifery.
- Provide international training on evidenced based nursing and midwifery.

Terms of Reference #3 : Promote and support research related to evidence-based for services, educ

- Conduct systematic reviews of research in nursing and midwifery on selected topics.
- Conduct research for best practice in nursing and midwifery for selected areas in close collaboration w
- Provide consultation in evidence based practice of nursing and midwifery at national and international l

Terms of References

Written by Administrator

Thursday, 29 July 2010 08:28 - Last Updated Thursday, 29 July 2010 08:52

Terms of Reference #4 : Promote and support the application and utilization of best practice in nursing

- Develop guidelines based on evidence for best practice in nursing and midwifery.
- Work collaboratively with the nursing service in health care settings in the implementation of best practice

Terms of Reference # 5 : Collect and disseminate information on evidence-based practice in nursing

- Arrange conferences or meetings on evidence based nursing and midwifery at a national level.
- Submit manuscripts to peer review journals at both national and international levels.
- Produce a WHO CC newsletter.